

Bombings in Detroit Laid to Youths

DETROIT (AP) — Eleven youths face prison terms of up to 25 years each if convicted on charges connected with eight bombings in the Detroit area in recent months.

The youths, including two girls, stood mute at their arraignments in Detroit Recorder's Court Monday. The group, ranging in ages from 18 to 24, are charged with conspiracy to place explosives with intent to do damage.

The explosions all damaged public property in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Roseville and St. Clair Shores and dated back to Aug. 30. No one was injured in the blasts which occurred in the evening or early morning.

Bombings rocked three Detroit police parking lots, a building housing two Roseville draft boards, the South Lake school administration building in St. Clair Shores, a parking lot at an Army recruiting office in Detroit, a CIA office in Ann Arbor and the Institute of Science and Technology building at the University of Michigan.

Police who had warrants for the arrests of eight others, said, "Their motivation appears to be antiestablishment." Police said the racially mixed group did not appear to be part of an organization.

Despite police characterization of the defendants as "hippies," they were for the most part dressed in conventional sports clothes without any hippie trinkets. One young man wore shoulder length hair and another had a wispy goatee.

Arrested were David J. Valler, 24; Ronald Pierce, 18; John Schmittroth, 19; William T. Ladd, 20; James R. Moscaro, 18; and Dieder Flowers, 20, all of Detroit. Others were Joseph Clever, 19; Antoine Daghyt, 18; Gary R. Miltimore, 19, and Sandra Rousseau, 20, all of St. Clair Shores and Benjamin H. Parks, 20, of Highland Park.

Sanitation Strike Ends Temporarily

LITTLE ROCK (ZAP) — The strike by members of Little Rock's Sanitation Department has ended, at least temporarily.

All but 27 of the 110 or so workers who struck Nov. 1 were back at work Monday. A majority of the 90 members of Council 38 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees agreed during the weekend to return to work for a 30-day negotiation period.

The city told the workers that no disciplinary action would be taken if they returned to work Monday.

Actor to Try to Beat Another

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Gene Barry says he hopes to run in 1970 for the U.S. Senate seat now held by George Murphy, a longtime film star before he was elected to the Senate in 1964 as a Republican. Barry said he would like the Democratic party nomination.

"I've worked on every campaign since John F. Kennedy's in 1960, locally and nationally," Barry said in an interview Monday. "So far it's just a personal intention. I do not yet have the sanction of the Democratic party."

Cutback in Army Training Bases Seen

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army appears ready to begin scaling down its huge training bases in the United States as the American buildup in Vietnam nears the 549,500-man ceiling.

The Pentagon acknowledges considering cutbacks in some training centers, but says no decision has been reached.

A reduction in training output will be possible as the Army ceases sending new units to Vietnam and concentrates for the most part on providing replacements for men winding up two and three-year tours.

The Vietnam manpower level, now at approximately 535,000 men, is expected to reach President Johnson's announced ceiling of 549,500 around the end of the year.

The Army Times, an unofficial publication aimed at the soldier audience, reports in its Nov. 13 edition that the Army plans to phase out basic combat training at Ft. Bliss, Tex., and advanced individual training at Ft. Dix, N.J.

The newspaper tied the elimination of basic training at Ft. Bliss to Army plans to cut back its weekly training load from 56 to 53 companies. A company is about 200 men.

The Bliss cutback would go into effect late this month. The phase-out of advanced individual training at Ft. Dix, the Times stated, would come in mid-December.

Dix would continue providing advanced training for guided missile men.

As part of the readjustment of the training complex, the Pentagon only a few days ago designated Ft. Polk, La., a permanent installation.

Officials said the move makes Polk, which dates back to World War II, eligible for some badly needed construction funds.

The Army has been operating 15 training centers to help meet Vietnam war needs.

Since mid-1965, when the big Vietnam buildup began in earnest, the Army has added over a half-million men to its ranks. The war effort requires 50,000

New Pastor at First Assembly

REV. C. C. TRUITT

Rev. and Mrs. Clifford Truitt from Poplar Bluff, Mo. have accepted the pastorate of the First Assembly of God Church 322 N. Main, here in Hope.

For the past nine years the Mr. Truitt has served as pastor of the First Assembly of God in Poplar Bluff, Mo. While there the church paid off a mortgage, enlarged the church, purchased property for expansion and built a $100,000 Nursing Home addition also free of debt.

Mr. Truitt is a graduate of Central Bible College at Springfield, Mo. and says this will be his first pastorate in the state of Arkansas. He has ministered in Missouri in various capacities although a major portion of his ministry has been pastoral. He has served as a District Pyrebyter and traveled as an evangelist in several states.

Mrs. Truitt is also very active in church activities. She has worked in the Women's Missionary Council and for the past ten years served as head counselor for the ladies and girls in the district summer camps.

The Rev. and Mrs. Truitt will be living in the church parsonage 107 W. Ave. C and will assume their pastoral ministry here, Sunday, November 17.

replacements per month, and other worldwide commitments demand additional forces.

In addition to Forts Dix, Bliss and Polk, the U.S. training centers include Ft. Knox and Ft. Campbell, Ky.; Ft. Jackson, S.C.; Ft. Gordon and Ft. Benning, Ga.; Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; Ft. Ord, Calif.; Ft. Sill, Okla.; Ft. Sam Houston, Tex. (medics); Ft. McClellan, Alabama (WAC's); Ft. Bragg, N.C.; and Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Whatever the Trouble U.S. Seems to Tie It Up Better Than Anyone

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — One of life's little ordeals today is how to cope with packages.

They seem to get harder to deal with all the time.

America may not have the best of everything but, whatever it has, it can wrap and tie it up better than any other country in the world.

Packaging has become our outstanding native art form. We are even better at it than we are at finger painting or building skyscrapers.

In other lands they try to make their packages as simple as possible. In France, for example, if you buy a damp fish or a bunch of flowers, they usually merely inclose it in a small piece of yesterday's newspaper and hand it to you. Bread ordinarily isn't even wrapped at all. You simply pick up a loaf, stick it under your arm, and march home with it.

This merely proves how benighted Europe has remained. The real test of a civilization is to what extent it can take a simple thing and make it more difficult, complex and complicated.

Judges solely in this respect by its art of packaging, this nation is by far the most civilized that has ever graced the earth. Our packages have become as complicated as our neuroses, and are just about as difficult to solve.

When you get a package today — a package of almost any kind — it is no longer merely a simple purchase or a surprise present. It is a great big problem.

On it should be printed in great bold letters: "I dare you to try to open me!"
No matter what the package contains — a book, a shirt, a mail order cheese from Wisconsin — it is wrapped as securely as if it held the contents of Ft. Knox.

It then becomes an endurance contest of wits, skill, patience and prayer to get it open. Attack it with all your might hands and feet, teeth and fingernails; its knots hold steadfast, its mile after mile of plastic adhesive tape remains dented and scratched but triumphantly unbroken.

Do what you will — stab at it with a kitchen knife, snip at it with scissors — these are the three best known ways to open a modern package:

1. Apply a blow torch to it.
2. Call in the bomb squad for help — and tip them heavily.
3. Take the day off, rent a steam roller, go to a side street, and keep running over the package. By nightfall it should begin to give.

If you want to even scores with an enemy nowadays, you don't need to denounce him in public or spread gossip about his character. A more cunning way is to send him a package every day — a package of anything — and tell the clerk: "Be sure to wrap it real good."

In 30 days your enemy will be destroyed.

Cold Weather to Stay a Few Days

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cold weather is here to stay, at least for the next few days in Arkansas, as a high pressure system settles over the southern portion of the nation.

The system cleared cloudy skies that brought threats of snow to the state Monday. However, the only rainfall reported in the state was 0.02 inches at Harrison and 0.01 at Walnut Ridge.

Low temperatures reported around the state this morning ranged from a hard-freeze 18 degrees at Fayetteville to 36 at Walnut Ridge.

High temperatures reported Monday ranged from 34 at Fayetteville to 47 at Texarkana.

Recount of Vote Shows Little Change

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Pulaski County Election Commission has certified the county's vote in the lieutenant governor's race.

The vote in the lieutenant governor's race in Sebastian County has been recounted.

And, unofficial returns show Lt. Gov. Maurice Britt leads his Democratic opponent, Bill G. Wells of Hermitage, by 3,386 votes.

With one box unreported from last week's election Britt has an unofficial total of 298,716 and Wells has 295,330.

W. T. Kelly and Richard C. Butler Jr., the two Republican members of the Pulaski County Commission, certified the county's vote Monday night.

Carl D. McDaniel, the Democratic member, opposed certification of the results. He said the tabulation "was not done the way it's been done before." He said this meant the tabulation had been made "by others than Democrats and the county clerk's office."

The certified tabulations also showed that Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic presidential nominee, carried the state's most populous county although third party candidate George C. Wallace carried the state. The certified tabulations showed Humphrey with 27,754, Republican Richard M. Nixon with 26,799 and Wallace with 25,826.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who won re-election, defeated his Democratic opponent, Marion H. Crank, by more than 20,000 votes. The certified figures showed Rockefeller with 29,126 and Crank with 28,486.

The certified vote in Sebastian County showed Britt with 16,576 and Wells with 10,234. Wells had asked for a recount in both Sebastian and Pulaski counties. The recounts altered the vote totals only slightly.

Earl Cobb, a member of the Sebastian County Election Commission said several ballots that had not been initiated by election judges had been counted. He said these could be easily eliminated if they were contested.

Cobb said there were 272 uninitiated ballots for Britt and 145 for Wells. He said the ballots were included because the commission didn't want to "disenfranchise" some of the voters.

Circuit Court Judge Tom Digby cleared the way Monday for certification of the Pulaski County vote when he nullified a restraining order issued Saturday by Pulaski County Judge Arch Campbell. Digby said Campbell was without jurisdiction to sign the injunction.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

DON'T JUDGE ADULTS BY WHAT YOU READ IN COLUMNS. Dear Helen: The more I read of adults the more I dread becoming one. Don't get me wrong. I think you are level-headed and well-qualified, Helen. But oh! The people who write in!

I am 15, less than half the age of your average reader. But I think that I and my generation are seeing life a hundred times more clearly.

Take the pretty little things they worry about: Gossip, husbands who won't scrub the shower, the exact age when a girl can shave her legs or wear a bra (not based on when this is necessary but how old she is).

But my major gripes are people like "Mark" who brag that adultery saved his marriage, and women who cave in and give their daughters The Pill. The real knee knocker was from the widow who let a man mooch off her for two years, and she was sure he loved her "because he made love to me every night since he moved in." Doesn't she know the difference between sex and love? Most teens do.

I could name thousands of similar cases with little effort. What does require effort, though is facing the sad fact that these "adults" run the country, my generation, and their lives so poorly.

I can feel righteous and smug when some old codger asks, disgustedly, "What's happening with kids?"

What's happening to us can't be any worse than what happened to his generation! --ANDREA

Dear Andrea: If you judged all people by what you read in advice columns you'd be like the psychiatrist who says, "Everybody's psycho," because he treats couch-cases eight hours a day.

Though I aim for a fair cross section of life, my mail leans heavily to troubles, weaknesses, occasional stinkers -- advice-seekers, not world-beaters. I sometimes print startling letters because, as you say, they make readers feel righteous. (You love 'em, and you know it!)

So don't generalize! When you lump adults into one scummy lot because a few disgust you, aren't you as guilty as the old codger who growls, "What's the younger generation coming to?" --H.

Dear Helen: Here is my version of WHAT IS A LITTLE SISTER?

She's the one who took all the attention from you and made it settle on her.

She's the one you have to watch instead of going to the show.

She's the one who peeks around the corner just in time to see your boy friend kiss you good-night, then runs in to tell everyone loud and clear just what she saw.

She's the one who smashes the top of your new lipstick. And tries out your make-up on her dolls.

She's the one with the devil in her eyes and a halo on her head.

What's a little sister? She's one of the sweetest things on earth, and you wouldn't trade her for the world. --A HAPPY SISTER

Dear Helen: My maiden aunt has always been wild about collie dogs, but lately her behavior is very strange. She now has eight collies and spends all her time with them, ignoring normal activities.

This past week she bought several outfits identical in coloring to collie hair. She has also dyed her own hair to match. You can hardly tell where dog leaves off and human begins.

My Dad says she is just putting on the dog, and don't worry until she starts to bark. What do you say? --MURPHY

Dear Murphy: I say you're putting ME on. But in case it's a true shaggy story, listen to your Dad. --H.

Hints on Marble

Keep your marble lovely by keeping it clean and properly protected. Wash marble with clean cloths and fresh lukewarm water. Twice a year, wash it with a mild detergent as an additional safeguard to remove residue dirt. Then protect it with a marble polish. This will help combat staining and discolorization by absorbing into its pores a discoloring material.

Marble reacts to certain acids and alkalis present in many foods and liquids. These can actually etch the marble. Alcohol and fruit juices will mar the surface. If any liquid is spilled on marble, it should be washed with clean water as soon as possible.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "Now You See It, Now You Don't!" was one of those made-for-TV films in NBC's World Premiere series Monday night, and the fact that it had never been seen on any screen before is about the only nice thing that one can say about it.

The plot rambled, then picked up wildly between farce and pie-throwing slapstick. It started out interestingly enough with a Los Angeles art museum about to exhibit a priceless Rembrandt.

At this point, things became complicated. Jonathan Winters played an insurance agency security man with a plan to swindle an unscrupulous Eastern potentate out of a million dollars by faking the theft of the art treasure.

This involved making copies of the painting, and devising a Rubie Goldberg machine to switch the real painting with a fake as it was being removed from a steel vault conveniently equipped with a handy ventilation duct.

There were any number of stock comedy figures including a French detective and the Eastern potentate. And the caricatures of the policemen made "Batman's" chief of police look like a genius.

Winters is a brilliant comedian who has not yet found the right television showcase for his special talents, and he was completely out of his element in a book comedy.

The story, which was ingenious, probably could have been worked into a light one-hour show, but it was painfully padded with irrelevant baren scenes and a comedy chase that went on interminably.

In a programming mishap on NBC, "The Tonight Show" which followed, wound up six minutes short. It seems that the 90-minute program, taped the night before in Hollywood, contained a comedy sketch with Johnny Carson working with Barbara Feldon of "Get Smart" and an actress, Carol Wayne, described delicately by an NBC spokesman as "amply endowed."

During the sketch, some remarks about Miss Wayne's construction were made. NBC's censors in New York decided the remarks must be erased. Informed of the decision, Carson instructed the network to cut out the entire sketch—or six minutes. Carson, it was reported, was "annoyed" by the decision, so viewers will probably hear more on the subject first hand soon.

In the new Nielsen ratings, released Monday, NBC had a slight lead with an average of 18.9, followed by CBS, with 18.4 and ABC, 15.9.

Most popular programs during the period between Oct. 28 and Nov. 3 were NBC's "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In" and "Walt Disney Hour;" CBS's "Jackie Gleason Show" and "Red Skelton Hour;" NBC's "Bonanza," "Ironside" and "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir;" CBS's Thursday Night Movie and "Gunsmoke;" and NBC's "Julia."

Not Often U.S. Can Celebrate

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — It isn't often the United States wins anything in international soccer competition so you can't blame the boys for wanting to celebrate.

"Yes, we'll go out on the town and celebrate a bit," Coach Phil Woosnam said Monday after the U.S. World Cup team won its Caribbean qualifying section with a 2-0 victory over Bermuda.

The victory gave the United States six points to five for Canada and one for Bermuda. The Americans next play the winners of the Guatemala-Haiti-Trinidad section.

Manicure Foundation
Use a base coat to provide a foundation to help your manicure last longer and to protect a damaged, scratched or overly porous nail from the possibility of becoming discolored by polish pigments.

Personal Items
Change wash cloths and towels often and always use your own. These are very personal items! If you wear face powder, be sure your puff is immaculately clean at all times. Grimy puffs attract bacteria and just add to clogged-pore problems.

Don't Skip Breakfast
Breakfast is an important meal. Don't skip it. Eat a complete breakfast every morning. It should include fruit juice, cereal or egg, toast and milk.

Comeback Fails, Hope B's Lose

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

After giving away three easy touchdowns the Hope "B" Lizards fell short in a belated comeback against Magnolia and lost a 32-26 decision on a sub-freezing night in Magnolia.

That finished the season for the Hope squad at 5-3-1, with two of those losses to Magnolia, who wound up 6-4 for the fall.

Jumping off to a quick 13-0 lead, the host Panthers were flying pretty high in the early going. Hope tied it up quickly on scoring passes from Ronny Massanelli to Phil Watkins (4 yards) and Simmons Smith (12 yards).

That tied the score at 13-all, but Magnolia QB Billy Daugherty threw two quick 34-yard TB strikes to Gary Adams to put the Panthers ahead 25-13 at the half.

Freshman tailback Ray Wheelington hammered out 89 yards in the final two quarters, and teamed well with brother Dillion at slotback.

An eight-yard scoring burst by Ray W. cut the deficit to 25-19, but Magnolia practically puts it away in the middle of the final segment with their fifth six-pointer, setting up a 33-19 lead.

Blessed with good luck, Magnolia put up a tough goalline stand late in the game which proved to make the difference. Hope scored the last TD with 0:03 left on a 2-yard run by Ray Wheelington, who had set it up with a 51-yard scamper down the sidelines.

The Hope defense stopped the opposing running game effectively in the early going, but Daugherty was the difference with his throwing and options.

By the way, tailback Danny Reyenga suffered a broken collarbone in the Lincoln game last week and is out for the season.

So the Bobcats get ready for Nashville in today's and tomorrow's practices, but the injury list continues to mount.

The team is ready now to play the Scrappers, hoping to spoil the NHS homecoming this Friday night.

No Battle Between Cage Giants

BOSTON (AP) — The expected duel between rookie sensation Elvin Hayes of San Diego and Boston Player-Coach Bill Russell failed to materialize. The Celtics were just too much for the Rockets.

"I don't think it was a fair test," San Diego Coach Jack McMahon said after the Celtics romped to a 134-113 National Basketball Association victory Monday night in the first meeting of Hayes and Russell.

"This game was not determined by Russell or Hayes," McMahon added. "It was determined by the hustle of the Celtics."

The Celtics built a 69-40 lead in the first half and breezed the rest of the way.

The Philadelphia 76ers belted Seattle 127-117 as Hal Greer scored 34 points and Billy Cunningham 30 in the opener of the doubleheader at Boston Garden.

Hayes, the 6-foot-9½ former Houston star who was the No. 1 choice in the NBA draft, was given a rest two minutes after Russell retired to the bench early in the third period.

Later, they took turns complimenting each other.

"He's tough," Hayes said of Russell. "You don't go in on Russell."

"He's good," Russell said. "He would have smoked me if he got the ball."

Hayes finished with 17 points, about 10 below his average, and 11 rebounds. Russell, a 13-year veteran, had eight points and 10 rebounds. Hayes was 7-for-19 from the floor, Russell 3-for-6.

John Havlicek led the Celtics with 29 points, including 16 in the first half. San Diego's Don Kojis matched Havlicek's 29 points.

In the only game on the American Basketball Association schedule the Oakland Oaks triumphed the New Orleans Buccaneers 136-127 in overtime, with 6-foot-11 Jim Ekins scoring 32 points and Rick Barry hitting for 31.

Big Game for Tigers on Weekend

BEN PAKKINS and ARTHUR MAXWELL

Yerger Sports Writers

The Yerger Tigers continue to get ready for what could be their biggest game of the year. They presently stand 6-1-1 over all and 3-1-1 in district 7-A action. The Tigers again will be operating without defensive end Richard Carter who hasn't completely recovered from a knee injury. They will start Sammie Austin, who filled that spot in their last outing.

Quarterback David Block says all of the players are ready both mentally and physically for Texarkana. They are realizing that this will be their last game in the Yerger blue and gold, so they say they are going to make the best of it. Here are some of the promises of the players: Linebacker David Benton is going to make 20 tackles. Tackle Ronald Moses is going to make 10 tackles and cause 4 fumbles. Cornerback Frank Prater is going to intercept 3 passes and run 2 back for touchdowns. Quarterback David Block is going to hit 20 of 25 passes for 230 yards. Halfback Artis Martin is going to rush for 160 yards on 20 carries. The sports writers at Yerger say if the above players do as good as they say and the other players do only half as good as them, the Tigers are on their way to their seventh victory.

Kick off will be at 7:30 p.m. in Hammons Stadium Friday night November 15.

Key Players Out of Hog Lineup

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas' Razorbacks will have to go after a share of the Southwest Conference lead Saturday against SMU without the services of tailback Bill Burnett and defensive tackle Terry Don Phillips.

Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said Monday that Phillips would not be able to play because of a back injury. He said Burnett's sprained toe would keep the hard-running sophomore out of action.

Broyles said senior David Dickey and junior Russell Cody would share the load at tailback.

Arkansas, SMU, Texas Tech and Texas are in a four-way tie for first in the SWC with only two weeks left. Saturday's game at Little Rock will be telecast regionally.

The Razorbacks went through what Broyles called a "good, spirited practice" Monday in 30-degree weather. He said Dickey, tight end Mike Sigman and defensive back Tommy Dixon would serve as co-captains for Saturday's game.

College Football Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The pressure will be doubled this weekend for Southern California's top-ranked Trojans. Not only do they face Oregon State, only team to beat them in the last two seasons, but they're still No. 1 in The Associated Press' college football poll.

"That's the biggest pressure," Coach John McKay admitted Monday. "Our opponents come in and that's all they're chanting—Kill No. 1."

The Trojans not only remained No. 1, they strengthened their hold on the top spot with a 35-17 trouncing of California. The defending national champs garnered 32 first-place ballots and 908 points in the voting by 47 sports writers and broadcasters across the nation.

Ohio State was second with 14 first-place votes and 864 points, but the Buckeyes slipped from 13 to 44 points behind despite a 43-8 rout of Wisconsin.

The other first-place ballot went to Penn State, which climbed from fourth to third by trimming Miami, Fla., 22-7. The top three teams all have 7-0 records.

Michigan, Georgia and Missouri all moved up after posting easy victories. Michigan rose from seventh to fourth by sponging Illinois 36-0, Georgia blasted Florida 51-0 and jumped from ninth to fifth and Missouri was up two places to sixth in the wake of a 42-7 walloping of Iowa State.

Kansas, a 27-23 loser to Oklahoma, fell from the unbeaten ranks and from third to seventh in the poll. Texas ripped Baylor 47-26 and moved from 10th to eighth. Notre Dame climbed from 12th to ninth by walloping Pitt 56-7 and Arkansas' 46-21 bombing of Rice sent the Razorbacks from 14th to 10th.

The Second Ten consisted of Tennessee, Auburn, Oregon State, Houston, Purdue, Alabama, Ohio University, California, Indiana and Wyoming. Alabama and Indiana were the only newcomers to the weekly Top Twenty, replacing Michigan State and Louisiana State. Alabama beat LSU 16-7 while Indiana nipped Michigan State 24-22.

Ashe Thinks U.S. Team Will Win

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — "I think," said Arthur Ashe confidently, "we will win."

And from the way the 25-year-old Army lieutenant from Richmond, Va., and his teammates manhandled India in the Davis Cup interzone final here, Ashe's prediction might come true when the United States takes its challenge to Australia next month.

The United States won four of the best-of-five match series with the strong Indian team to advance to the showdown Dec. 26-28 in Adelaide against the defending champions for amateur tennis' most prized possession.

Australia has won the Cup 11 of the last 13 years. It lost it to the Americans in 1963 but won't back the next year.

Ashe, the first Negro ever to win a major tennis title, led the United States into the Davis Cup Challenge Round for the first time since 1964 with a 6-1 6-3, 6-3 coast past Ramathan Krishnan Monday.

That gave the Americans a 3-1 lead in the series and made the day's second match between Clark Graebner of New York and India's Premjit Lal little more than an exhibition.

Nonetheless, Graebner needed three hours and 20 minutes to dispose of his spunky foe, 9-11, 9-7, 7-5, 6-4.

Ashe had turned back Lal in one of Saturday's singles.

Final Week May Decide NFL Champ

by JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The way things are going in the National Football League, the four division races may not be decided until the final weekend of the season, Dec. 14-15.

Baltimore and Los Angeles are tied at 8-1 in the Coastal Division and appear headed for another head-to-head confrontation at Los Angeles on the last day of the season, Dec. 15.

Cleveland, 6-3, has a half-game edge on St. Louis, in the Century Division where both the Browns and Cardinals are moving toward a climactic meeting at St. Louis, Saturday, Dec. 14.

Dallas, 7-2, had its Capitol Division lead sliced to one game when it was upset by New York, 6-3. The Cowboys and Giants wind up at Yankee Stadium Dec. 15.

In the scrambled Central Division, Chicago and Minnesota are tied at 5-4 but both Detroit and Green Bay, 3-5-1, still are in the race. This could shake down to a Dec. 15 visit of Green Bay to Chicago.

Each team has five games to play. Here's the way it shapes up by divisions:

Coastal
Baltimore—St. Louis, Minnesota, Atlanta, at Green Bay, at Los Angeles.

Los Angeles—At San Francisco, New York, at Minnesota, Chicago, Baltimore.

The Colts wind up with two real rough road games and also must deal with a desperate St. Louis team and the wheed-up Vikings as well as Atlanta.

The Rams will need all their muscle at San Francisco and Minnesota and even the Giants look tougher after upending Dallas. The Bears and Colts provide the final test.

Cleveland—at Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York, at Washington, at St. Louis.
St. Louis—at Baltimore, Atlanta, at Pittsburgh, at New York, Cleveland.

The Browns are on a four-game win streak with weaker Pittsburgh and Philadelphia immediately ahead while Cards must visit Baltimore getting a chance at Atlanta and Pittsburgh.

Key games for both may be New York, which Cleveland meets at home and St. Louis on the road. The Browns could have it wrapped up before that Dec. 14 game in St. Louis.

Capitol
Dallas—at Washington, at Chicago, Washington, Pittsburgh, at New York.

New York—Philadelphia, at Los Angeles, at Cleveland, St. Louis, Dallas.

The Cowboys have a good chance to apply the clincher before they ever get around to the rematch with the Giants, Dallas has two games with Washington and one with Pittsburgh sandwiched around a tough road test at Chicago.

The Giants must handle the Rams and Browns on the road and Eagles and Cards at home before thinking about Dallas.

Central
Minnesota—Detroit, at Baltimore, Los Angeles, at San Francisco, at Philadelphia.

Chicago—Atlanta, Dallas, at New Orleans, at Los Angeles, Green Bay.

In this zany race it is not safe to leave out Green Bay and Detroit, although each is 1½ games back. After Sunday's game at Minnesota, the Lions have the easiest path—New Orleans, Philadelphia, Atlanta and Washington.

Without Gale Sayers, the Bears can have trouble in any of their last five games. The Vikings also can not afford a letup before their finale at Philadelphia.

Green Bay could move back on top in the next two weeks while playing New Orleans and Washington but then wind up with San Francisco, Baltimore and Chicago.

When they finally decide it, the Capitol winners will play at the Century champs, Dec. 21 and the Central survivor will play at the Coastal winners Dec. 22.

The league title game will be played Dec. 29 at the home field of the Eastern champion.

SAYS:

NEW YORK—(NEA) — In my professional career, I've played 13 times against the Colts. And after my most recent encounter I can say without qualification it's the best Baltimore team I've seen. Primarily because it has reached a peak of sophistication in defensive football.

They're fantastic, those Colts. In a way you haven't seen in recent years.

The other great defensive teams of our time—Green Bay, Dallas, Detroit—have specialized in single coverage or combination man-to-man and zone against passing. The Colts are almost entirely a zone team, the only one I know that uses it exclusively as a defensive way of life.

I guess I should explain that zone coverage is exactly what the name implies—every man in the secondary (linebackers and backs) has a designated area to protect against intruders. Man-to-man is the traditional one-on-one situation in which the defender covers the receiver all the field. Most teams combine elements of the two systems, generally using a zone on the strong side of the field (the side on which the tight end lines up) and man-to-man on the weak side.

The Colts can get by with their full zone because of their tremendous mobility. With the snap of the ball, all 11 men move and pursue. I've never seen another team, with the possible exception of Green Bay, get as much movement out of its linebackers.

When you're playing against a zone, you expect to find passing gaps 12 to 14 yards deep, behind the normal areas of the linebackers. But the linebackers of the Colts, men like Mike Curtis and Ron Porter, get back deep and shut off those holes. They ignore the threat of quick-pop passes in front of them. They'll give you offense the four- or five-yard gain it might get on a short pass against the gamble that 1) you might bobble the ball, or 2) you won't have the discipline to sustain it that short passing game, or 3) the rush line will get to the passer, which the Colts manage to do four or five times a game.

As a result, you can't break big plays against the Colts. The zone defense shuts off the long range bomb to someone like Homer Jones. The amazing mobility of their linemen—tackles like Fred Miller and Billy Ray Smith can run with most backs—protects against the breakaway run.

Even play action passes.

Charges Chiefs Play Dirty Football

CINCINNATI (AP) — Season play between the Kansas City Chiefs and the Cincinnati Bengals has ended, but charges and counter charges of dirty football as a result of their last encounter continued to fly between the two American Football League teams.

The Chiefs started the succession of accusations immediately after Sunday's game in Cincinnati which Kansas City took 16-9.

Bengals' Pat Matson, Fletcher Smith and Bill Kendrick came under attack of several Chiefs.

"That damn Matson," said Buck Buchanan, "I wish I'd played in front of him the whole game. There'll be another time, though."

Sitting beside Buchanan on the dressing room bench was teammate Noland Smith, nursing a swollen lip and eye. "I guess he (Fletcher Smith) was trying to hurt me," said the 154-pound Smith.

Kansas City Coach Hank Stram said what he saw on the field was in line with what his Chiefs said.

But Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown said that game films showed that if there were any roughhouse culprits—they were from the Kansas City club.

"They are the guilty people," Brown said firmly after he blewed films Monday afternoon. "And the pictures can prove it."

Of the charge that Fletcher Smith "clothes-lined" Noland Smith, he said: "He simply tackled him around the head, which is legitimate."

"The real truth is that they're just a bunch of pros who didn't want to pay much of a price to play us. They have to be laughing at us."

Priests Stage Sit-in Over Birth Control

By JAMES R. POLK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A band of dissident priests have besieged the nation's Roman Catholic bishops with a sit-in at a plush hotel amid signs that the church leaders may soften the interpretation of Pope Paul VI's ban on artificial birth controls.

A proposed pastoral letter pending before the National Conference of Catholic Bishops moves tentatively toward making birth control a question of conscience for each married couple—a stance that could cushion Pope Paul VI's controversial ban on all contraceptives.

But the bishops said they had no power to intervene in the dispute swirling around 40 Washington priests penalized by Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle after they dissented against his rulings that the Pope's edict prohibited any use of contraceptives.

About 200 priests, singing "The Impossible Dream," marched into the bishops' hotel at nightfall Monday to show support for the 40.

They sat-in for three hours before Archbishop John F. Dearden of Detroit, head of the conference, finally met with them and received an appeal asking the conference to require mediation of their dispute with the cardinal.

The contraceptive issue is dominating the bishops' five-day fall session which began Monday. A final stand on the controversy is expected to be shaped in secret debate starting Wednesday.

The proposed version of the pastoral letter already handed out to the bishops also probes the morality of the Vietnam war and takes a stance in favor of selective conscientious objection to a specific war. But the bishops refused to spell out any details in advance of their vote.

About 220 bishops and five cardinals are attending the conference only a week after the General Assembly of Bishops left the question of birth control up to personal conscience.

A civil engineer picketed the hotel Monday with a sign showing red flames and the inscription: "To Hell with Dissenting French Bishops—Obey the Pope."

About 300 priests from as far away as San Antonio and Seattle met during the day Monday to ask the U.S. bishops to step in the punishment dispute. Many of them, led by clergymen cast out from their parishes by Cardinal O'Boyle, marched a mile to the hotel to deliver the appeal.

The priests prayed in the lobby, sang hymns and ate sandwiches until Archbishop Dearden appeared before them to accept their appeal. The Rev. Thomas Reese of Wilmington, Del., a spokesman for the priests, said afterwards, "It's a calculated risk—it may do more harm than good. But we're hopeful."

Czech Old Guards Want a Purge

By GENE KRAMER
Associated Press Writer
PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's besieged Communist leaders neared a test of strength today under fire from two sides. Old guard, pro-Soviet Communists demanded a purge of the press, radio and television, while students threatened to strike against further concessions to Moscow and insisted that the leaders uphold the democratization process started last January.

Tension mounted as the Communist party's 160-member central committee prepared for a meeting Thursday. A showdown is expected.

As long predicted, the national unity achieved after the Soviet invasion in August was weakening.

Premier Oldrich Cernik and the central trade union organization condemned recent anti-Soviet demonstrations. The premier warned that the government would take "drastic steps" against future outbreaks. He appealed to the young people to abstain from "undignified spontaneous actions in which mass psychosis prevails over reason" and to let the leaders settle matters by political means.

A meeting of university students was told that Cernik had ordered the city police to act with force against the first signs of parades on International Students' day next Sunday.

But the students went ahead with plans for a demonstration in memory of "all students who laid down their lives for the freedom of their country and the freedom of thought" and against "occupation by foreign armies anywhere."

They also made plans for student strikes and sit-ins if the memorial demonstration is banned or if the party Central Committee meeting does not go to their liking.

The situation was said to be more tense in Slovakia than in Prague. Slovak students were reported to have set up strike committees outside of their Communist party connections.

A resolution being approved in one after another of Prague's academies and the departments of Charles University demanded reinstatement of the few liberal officials fired since the invasion, pursuance of all reforms and the opening of negotiations for the withdrawal of the Soviet troops that are remaining in the country indefinitely by terms of the treaty with Moscow which the local leaders were forced to sign Oct. 18.

He will address the Rotary Club of Hope, one of 29 in his district, and will confer with Harold S. Eakley, president of the local Rotary club, and with other club officials to obtain information on the group's plans for its service activities and to offer suggestions on Rotary administrative matters.

A member and past president of the Rotary Club of El Dorado, Mr. Alley is Division Manager of Arkansas Power & Light Company. He was elected to office at the Rotary convention in Mexico City in May, 1968 and will serve until June 30, 1969.

BILL ALLEY

Rotarians will welcome on November 14, the governor of this Rotary district, W. C. (Bill) Alley of El Dorado.

U.S. Planning Moon Shot at Christmas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The space agency said today the Apollo 8 mission will attempt an orbital flight around the moon, probably during the Christmas holidays.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said the launching from Cape Kennedy, Fla., for what a few years ago would have been pure science fiction, will occur no earlier than Dec. 21.

This would mean the three Apollo 8 astronauts would spend Christmas Eve and part of Christmas day making the lunar orbits.

NASA officials announced at a news conference the Apollo mission would be "open-ended" — that is, conducted in steps referred to as plateaus or "commitment points."

"Each plateau includes a thorough system check of crew, system and equipment operations," officials said.

"Only when all conditions are satisfactory will the decision be made to commit to the next plateau."

NASA said this type of operation allows for various alternate missions, including a low, earth-orbit flight, a flight to a distance of as much as 60,000 miles, or a flight around the moon.

"Conducting the mission in this manner provides both maximum crew safety and maximum benefits through alternate flight mission selection as the flight proceeds," the announcement said.

The announcement was made by Dr. Thomas O. Paine, NASA acting administrator; Lt. Gen. Samuel Phillips, Apollo program manager, and William Schneider, Apollo 8 mission director.

Before starting the actual 250,000-mile trek to the moon, the astronauts first would make at least two orbits of the earth to check out their spacecraft.

Once there, the craft is to make 10 orbits about 70 miles from the surface during a 20-hour photography mission scheduled to begin Christmas Eve.

A Pacific Ocean splashdown will end the mission Dec. 28 after the spacecraft barrels through the earth's atmosphere at 25,000 miles per hour—twice the speed of earlier re-entries.

Apollo 8 will carry two 40-year-old men who have already orbited the earth — Air Force Col. Frank Borman and Navy Capt. James A. Lovell, plus Air Force Maj. William A. Anders, 35, making his first space flight.

The near-perfect performance of the 11-day Apollo 7 mission made possible the scheduling of a moon-orbit flight.

This will be the first use of the huge Saturn 5 moon rocket on a manned spacecraft. The Apollo 7 astronauts—Walter M. Schirra, Jr., Donn F. Eisele and Walter Cunningham—were launched last Oct. 11 by a Saturn 1B rocket, in the first such use of the smaller version of the Saturn series.

The Apollo 8 astronauts must fire braking rockets near the moon to reduce their velocity to lunar-orbit speed.

Christmas morning the astronauts will re-start their rocket engines to accelerate and break free of lunar gravity.

Declares Need Shown for Convention

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — George E. Campbell of Little Rock, chairman of the state Constitutional Convention Advisory Commission, said Monday that the people of Arkansas had shown in last week's election that they "understand the need for a convention."

The last unofficial tabulations showed the convention had been approved, 217,586 to 201,963.

Campbell said the voters had "made their desires unmistakably clear." He said that in view of the obstacles he considered the vote a "definite mandate" for a constitutional convention.

Campbell said many of those persons who voted against a convention were victims of "misrepresentation and gross inaccuracy on the part of those who campaigned against it."

"I believe most of those voting against the question will become convinced that a convention is the best way to revise our constitution when they see it in action," he said. "If a sound and reasonable document is presented to the people, I am confident they will vote for it."

The convention will get under way in April.

Pat Nixon Gets Tour of White House

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Pat Nixon says a tour of the White House with Lady Bird Johnson revealed that the executive mansion is "a house that shows someone cares."

"I have been here several times, but I have never seen the house as I have today," said Mrs. Nixon Monday after seeing the house with Mrs. Johnson as guide.

Mrs. Nixon, who will become the first lady in January, said the visit gave her a chance to see renovations completed during the Kennedy administration.

The girls came here as tourists, stood in line and went through the house on various occasions," said Mrs. Nixon.

The two wives paid a good deal of attention to the closets, according to Mrs. Johnson's press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter.

The tour brought out the first word that the White House closets were undergoing complete refurbishing by the New York firm of Hammacher Schlemmer as a gift to the nation.

The two wives also had time for a fireside chat in the second-floor yellow oval drawing room. Mrs. Nixon met the Johnsons' granddaughter, Lucinda.

"This is a great house, beautifully run by a staff that will do everything possible to make you comfortable and happy," Mrs. Johnson told her guest.

The two viewed the 14 rooms and six baths on the second floor and nine guest rooms and seven baths on the third floor.

Mrs. Nixon said afterwards she hadn't seen so much of the White House, even during the Eisenhower administration, when her husband was vice president.

When the Nixons move in they won't have to bring much furniture of their own, Mrs. Carpenter pointed out that the only furniture belonging to the Johnsons are bedroom suites used by their daughters, Luci and Lynda.

Snow Storms Rake Parts of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Gale force winds, with gusts up to 60 miles an hour, battered the metropolitan area of New York today and cold weather followed in the wake of a furious storm that raked the Carolinas, Florida and central Alabama.

Police reported this morning that many motorists abandoned their automobiles on the Bronx-Whitestone Bridge and ran off when the bridge started to sway in the heavy winds. The strong gusts were accompanied by wet snow and rain.

The bridge, which spans the East River between the Bronx and Queens, was closed to traffic. No injuries were reported. Gale warnings were in effect for the metropolitan area with tides expected to be about three feet above normal.

Gale force winds and rain also lashed New Jersey and resulted in some flooding in the Newark area. Trees were reported down along the coast and in several sections of Newark. Small isolated failures were reported by power companies.

The storm that lashed the New York-New Jersey sections was one that moved up from off the North Carolina coast. Earlier, the storm pounded Florida and the Carolinas and adjacent sections with mountainous snow, heavy rains and tornadoes.

Move Started to Eradicate Leprosy

RANGOON, Burma (AP) — The Burmese government has launched a five-year leprosy eradication scheme to combat not only the disease but the pre-eradication scheme to combat leprosy and social stigma attached to it.

Burma has 200,000 known cases of leprosy in a population of 25 million. Only a small fraction of these are receiving modern scientific treatment at a half-dozen leprosy hospitals run by Christian missionaries.

There are thousands of other hidden cases, unreported and untreated. Lepers in Burma are treated worse than criminals, denied family social life, civic rights and medical facilities for treatment of other maladies.

Many Burmese, who are 85 per cent Buddhist, consider leprosy a divine curse. Consequently lepers try to hide their symptoms until the disease shows up in advanced form, when treatment is likely to be prolonged.

To combat this before it becomes a national problem, the Ministry of Health has budgeted considerable funds for its five-year plan.

nounced one man was wounded when an Army UH-1 helicopter was shot down Sunday along the Cambodian border. It was the 920th helicopter reported downed in combat over the South.

Military spokesmen reported five new shelling attacks during the night, three of them against provincial capitals and district towns. Six civilians were reported killed and 36 wounded.

America's biggest bombers, the Air Force B52s, kept up their heavy raids on enemy infiltration corridors, troop concentrations and staging areas between Saigon and the Cambodian border. Twenty-five of the eight-jet Stratofortresses dropped 750 tons of bombs on positions from 30 miles northwest of Saigon to within a mile and a half of Cambodia.

The U.S. Command also announced the termination of two lengthy operations in the jungled foothills south of Da Nang. Headquarters said nearly 12,000 enemy soldiers were killed in the two operations, one of which lasted for more than a year and the other for seven months. U.S. casualties were put at 812 men killed and 4,584 wounded.

Many Drugs Are Found Ineffective

By RALPH DIGHTON Associated Press Writer EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — A panel of 200 scientists has found scores of drugs tested in a study for the Federal Food and Drug Administration "totally ineffective."

The panel called for relabeling of more than 2,000 drugs—two-thirds of those tested so far in the study.

Dr. Robert K. Cannon of the National Academy of Sciences told a group of science writers Monday that revision is necessary because "the labels were misleading and devious."

"They left the impression that a drug could do what it cannot do," he said. "To put it bluntly, there was not a fair representation of the drug in question."

Dr. Cannon reported on a two-year study of drugs placed on the market between 1938 and 1962. The study now is about 87 per cent complete, and there is no reason to suspect that the two-thirds figure will change when the study of 3,600 formulations is finished, he said.

The study, being made by a National Academy of Sciences panel at the FDA's request, covers drugs introduced prior to 1962—about 85 per cent of all those now on the market.

Those introduced since 1962 have been subject to laws requiring that label claims be substantiated.

Dr. Cannon said 6 per cent of the drugs tested so far have been "rated totally ineffective" despite elaborate claims.

The biochemist declined to name brands, saying that was up to the FDA. A full report will be made when the study is completed, probably early next year.

Only a small fraction of the drugs covered in the study can be bought over the counter, Dr. Cannon said. The rest are prescription items.

Delay Granted in Trial of King Slayer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — A change of lawyers and a delay were granted today in the murder trial of James Earl Ray, charged with the sniper assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. last April 4.

Texas lawyer Percy Foreman took over as chief defense counsel, replacing Alabama's Arthur Hanes, who was ousted by Ray two days before the trial was scheduled to open this morning. No date was set for the trial, but Foreman requested a 90-day continuance.

Criminal Court Judge Preston Battle recessed court after granting the change of attorneys, and the continuance motion—indicating he will announce a trial date after the recess.

Hanes, who charged in an interview before court opened, that the switch was a subterfuge to gain a delay which he opposed, was directed to put up a $1,000 bond on a contempt of court citation by the judge.

Battle, who will preside at the trial, said Hanes violated his order against pretrial statements about the case.

Ray, 40, appeared in the small courtroom for the hearing that lasted less than an hour.

It was Ray's first public appearance since his arraignment in London following his arrest by Scotland Yard detectives last summer.

Ray is accused of killing King with a rifle shot when the civil rights leader was here to lead a garbage strike demonstration.

Peace Talks Expected to Resume Soon

By LEWIS GULICK Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — U.S. diplomats held out hope today that the Vietnam peace talks will resume soon but Saigon and Hanoi were publicly unyielding.

One U.S. source said the expanded parley, postponed from Nov. 6, might begin within two weeks. But he added there are differing views among U.S. delegation members about how long it will take to work out an agreement with South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu.

President-elect Richard M. Nixon's statement that the Johnson administration speaks for him on foreign affairs until he takes office Jan. 20 gave important backing to the efforts of U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and his team.

The U.S. delegation has not heard yet whether Nixon will send an advance man to observe the talks. Henry Cabot Lodge U.S. ambassador at Bonn, has been mentioned as a possibility. Lodge was twice ambassador to Saigon, and Nixon's running mate in the 1960 presidential race.

The Paris talks are stalled by Thieu's refusal to attend any conference at which the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front does not have diplomatic status inferior to that of Thieu's government. U.S. negotiators began consultations Monday with South Vietnam's observer in Paris, Pham Dang Lam, looking for a basis for compromise. But in Saigon, a spokesman for Thieu repeated the president's demands and said South Vietnam "will never give equal status at the peace talks to the Hanoi-dominated NLF."

Information Minister Ton That Thien said recognition of the NLF would amount to recognition of three Vietnams instead of the present two.

"We will never accept a vague understanding," he declared. "We want specific guarantees that the NLF will not be seated as a separate delegation."

The Communists held a mass rally in Paris at which they blamed the United States for the breakdown in negotiations. Hanoi's chief delegate to the talks, Xuan Thuy, declared "a war-mongering American faction" was encouraging Thieu to balk at joining the talks because it wanted the stall the peacemaking process.

Mrs. Nguyen Thi Binh, the chief NLF delegate, made similar charges. She shared the speakers' platform with Thuy under a large portrait of North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh.

Democratic Secretary Suspended

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — J.P. "Sonny" Lybrand Jr., the executive secretary of the state Democratic party, has been placed on leave of absence. Charles D. Matthews of North Little Rock, chairman of the state party, made the announcement Monday. He also said that Lybrand's $12,000-a-year salary had been suspended.

"I have received a number of expressions that we take a new look at things after the election," Matthews said.

Arkansas left the Democratic fold for the first time in history in last week's general election and Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller was re-elected.

"The point is we have a new order involved here," Matthews said. He said Fred Lambert, a Negro field worker for the State Committee, also had been placed on leave.

Matthews said the committee would probably meet within the next 30 days and that it would have to consider whether Lybrand represents the view that the party now wants to assume. He also said that a few members of the party represented the "old guard" faction of the party.

Nixon Leaves a Big Question About His Peace Seeking Plan

By FRANK CORMIER Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon, while pledging that President Lyndon B. Johnson speaks for him on Vietnam and other crucial foreign policy matters, has left a big question mark about his own possible preinaugural role as a peace-seeking diplomat overseas.

Nixon flew here Monday night for a stay of several days following a lengthy meeting with Johnson at the White House.

Before meeting the chief executive he will succeed on January 20, Nixon had talked about possible personal missions to Saigon or the Paris peace talks should Johnson deem them helpful. He also suggested he might send emissaries abroad—presumably to Saigon or Paris—if Johnson agreed.

But after their White House talks, neither Nixon nor Johnson said a word—or even hinted at—preinaugural foreign travel by the President-elect or the dispatching of representatives from the incoming administration.

Johnson, however, did indicate he might be having more conferences with Nixon before January 20.

"It was a very pleasant and cooperative meeting," Johnson told newsmen, "as we expect all these meetings in the days ahead to be."

Nixon, appearing jointly with the President, talked about such foreign policy problems as Vietnam, a possible new Mideast crisis and the ever-present question of American-Soviet relations.

"If progress is to be made in any of these fields," Nixon said, "it can be made only if the parties on the other side realize that the current administration is setting forth policies that will be carried forward by the next administration."

Nixon expressed hope that as a result of what he described as "completely candid discussions" with Johnson and key administration advisers, "rather than having the lapse of a lame duck presidency, in effect, we might have some very significant action, progress toward peace" before inauguration day.

The Johnsons and the Nixons had lunch and then, while the ladies toured the White House and discussed housekeeping problems, the men conferred in the Cabinet room with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford, presidential advisor Walt W. Rostow, Director Richard Helms of the Central Intelligence Agency, and Gen. Earle Wheeler, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Nixon flew to New York from Washington after spending four days in Key Biscayne, Fla., relaxing and beginning preliminary discussions on the formation of his new administration.

About half a dozen top Nixon aides accompanied him to the White House and, while he and Johnson talked, met with their likely counterparts in the outgoing administration.

It was understood that a number of the Nixon aides will be returning to Washington from time to time to discuss details of the transition from one administration to the other.

Finch spoke on his arrival from Florida where he had been with Nixon.

Black, John Harlan and Potter Stewart, entered separate concurring opinions.

The law, passed in 1926, made it a crime for public school teachers in Arkansas to tell their students that man descended from the apes. If a teacher did so teach, he could be fired and fined up to $500.

The court rested its ruling on the First Amendment doctrine that government may not foster a particular religious view.

Fortas explained that Arkansas abridged this principle by prohibiting the teaching of evolution for what he called "the sole reason that it is deemed to conflict with a particular religious doctrine." That doctrine is a literal interpretation of the Book of Genesis.

The Arkansas law was attacked by Mrs. Susan Epperson, a young biology teacher and by H. H. Blanchard of Little Rock, who said his school children should be exposed to all scientific theory.

Mrs. Epperson claimed she could not teach biology properly in the city's Central High School without explaining the Darwinian concept of evolution. The Arkansas State Supreme Court had upheld the law in June 1967.

A Major Road Dedication for DeAnn

It was the coldest day of the season — around 40 — but northern Hempstead county turned out in force at Marlbrook Baptist church Monday afternoon for a major state highway dedication centering on DeAnn.

It marked the completion and formal opening of State 195 linking DeAnn with Marlbrook and State 24, about 11 miles north, and for State 332, which gives DeAnn a direct 11-mile connection east to Prescott, State 332 runs west to a junction with State 29, making the DeAnn - Hope distance 9 miles. No. 195 likewise reduces the distance that formerly had to be traveled by DeAnn folks visiting Blevins, now accessible through the Marlbrook junction with No. 24 three miles east of Blevins.

The formal program Monday was held inside the Marlbrook church, Lester Wade greeted the visitors in behalf of DeAnn; State Rep. Talbot Field, Jr., of Hope was master of ceremonies, and the invocation was given by Chancellor Royce Welsenberger.

Mrs. Delanie Bonds Neece entertained with songs, accompanied by Miss Nancy Ross; and a fine barbecue was prepared for the visitors.

Speakers were: State Highway Commissioner John Harsh of Magnolia, State Highway Director Ward Goodman of Little Rock, former Hempstead County Judge U. G. Garrett of Hope, and State Senator Olen Hendrix of Prescott.

Also present were: State Highway Maintenance Engineer Jim Lowder of Little Rock, Chief Engineer John Pendergrass of Little Rock, Hope District Engineer John Talent, former Nevada County Judge Mack Hillery and Prescott Mayor Foy Box.

Special credit for local help in promoting No. 195 and No. 332 was given the following DeAnn citizens: S. E. Lee, Irving Whitley, Irvin Burke, Lester Wade, Andrew Avery, Monroe Samuel, and Richard Arnold.

Convention Delegate Suit Filed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A hearing is scheduled today before Circuit Court Judge Warren Wood of Little Rock on a lawsuit seeking another election to fill Pulaski County's 13 constitutional convention delegate seats.

The suit was filed Monday by 22 of the 27 candidates whose names were on the lower line of the ballot on the voting machines.

Henry Woods of Little Rock, an unsuccessful candidate for a delegate's position, says the portion of the general election pertaining to constitutional delegates in Pulaski County should be declared void because those candidates listed on the bottom line of the ballot ran behind those on the top line.

The suit contends that the ballot arrangement was made "in the certain knowledge that those candidates on the bottom line would be defeated."

Miss Canada Is Selected

TORONTO (AP) — Marie-France Beaulieu, 17-year-old brown-eyed brunette from Montreal, was named Miss Canada of 1969 Monday night.

Dedicate St. Hys. 195, 332 Serving DeAnn

Two new state highways constructed in Hempstead county were dedicated in a joint program sponsored by citizens of the DeAnn community on the grounds of the Marlbrook Baptist church at 3 p.m. Monday.

State Highway 195 runs from DeAnn 11 miles north to a junction with State 24 at Marlbrook, while State 332 connects DeAnn directly with Prescott. The new construction reduces the distance from DeAnn to Hope by way of State 29 to 9 miles, while State 332 cuts the distance from DeAnn to Prescott to 11 miles.

Picture shows the ribbon-cutting at Marlbrook which officially opened both highways. Cutting the ribbon for No. 195 is Ann Whitley, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Whitley of DeAnn; while the honors for No. 332 are done by Cosy Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Burke, also of DeAnn.

Here is the official group at the ribbon-cutting ceremony, left to right: Lester Wade, Irving Whitley, State Highway Commissioner John Harsh of Magnolia, State Representative Talbot Field, Jr., of Hope, State Highway Director Ward Goodman of Little Rock, State Senator Olen Hendrix of Prescott, former Hempstead County Judge U. G. Garrett of Hope, and Irvin Burke.

Arkansas' Evolution Law Void

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas' anti-evolution law, a vestige of the fundamentalist religious fervor of the 1920s, was declared unconstitutional today by the Supreme Court.

"The law must be stricken because of its conflict with the constitutional prohibition of state laws respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof," said Justice Abe Fortas.

Speaking for a court that disagreed only on certain aspects of the case, he said: "The state's undoubted right to prescribe the curriculum for its public schools does not carry with it the right to prohibit, on pain of criminal penalty, the teaching of a scientific theory or doctrine where the prohibition is based upon reasons that violate the First Amendment."

U.S. Accuses S. Vietnam of Balking

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford accused South Vietnamese leaders today of balking at a peace talks arrangement "in the last of the ninth inning."

Clifford said the United States should go ahead with the peace talks with North Vietnam in Paris if President Nguyen Van Thieu continues his refusal to take part.

The defense secretary told a news conference that President Johnson had a duty to go ahead with his announcement of the bombing halt, despite last-minute South Vietnamese reservations, because Johnson had a commitment to North Vietnam. That arrangement was developed in secret talks in which Clifford said the Saigon government was kept fully informed.

"I think the President owed it to the American people to proceed with the talks," Clifford said.

He declined to characterize the South Vietnamese action as sabotage or double-cross, as a reporter suggested, and said the United States is making every reasonable effort to change Saigon's stand.

"It continues to be my hope that they (Saigon government) will see it as we do and that they will go ahead with the talks very soon," Clifford said.

No meeting date for opening the intensive Paris peace talks has been set as of now, he added.

Says Enemy Beaten on All Fronts

SAIGON (AP) — The commander of U.S. forces in South Vietnam says the Communist side's major units have suffered massive losses and a large proportion of them have retreated to border areas or out of the country.

"The enemy has met with nothing but defeat throughout South Vietnam," said Gen. Creighton W. Abrams in a Veterans' Day message to his command, made available to newsmen today.

"The military successes and demonstrated effectiveness of Vietnamese and allied forces, together with our own, have brought us to a dominant position of strength and of confidence for the future," Abrams declared.

The general's headquarters said intelligence information indicates between 80,000 and 90,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops are now in the South, and another 30,000 to 40,000 have withdrawn to Laos, Cambodia or North Vietnam.

The U.S. Command says at least 168,015 Communist troops have been killed this year and at least 411,358 since Jan. 1, 1961.

"With the continuing defeat of the enemy's main forces," Abrams said, "the opportunity now opens wider to destroy his local forces, guerrillas and infrastructure and progressively eliminate his remaining capability to threaten the security of South Vietnam."

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the U.S. Army's chief of staff and Abrams' predecessor in Vietnam, echoed Abrams' report in a Veterans' Day speech in Columbia, S.C.

"The Communist enemy has been defeated at every turn," Westmoreland said. "In battle after battle he has suffered severe losses in men, weapons and supplies."

No significant ground fighting was reported today, but the U.S. Command said sporadic mortar and rocket fire was directed at several allied bases and populated areas during Monday night. Casualties generally were light, spokesmen said.

There were no reports of new incidents along the demilitarized zone where three U.S. Marine positions were shelled Sunday by North Vietnamese inside the DMZ. Activity along the DMZ is being watched closely because of President Johnson's indication that an end to attacks from the DMZ was part of the price for the suspension of U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

A U.S. Marine A4 Skyhawk bomber who shot down while on a strike 20 miles below the eastern flank of the demilitarized zone. The U.S. Command said the pilot was killed. It was the 16th U.S. warplane downed in combat over South Vietnam.

U.S. headquarters also announced that the U.S. Command is for parents of all Junior and Senior High Students.

Parents to Take Child's Schedule

The annual Parent-Teachers Conference for Hope District IA will be held Thursday, November 14, at 7:30 p.m. This conference is for parents of all Junior and Senior High Students.

Parents will gather in the Hope High School Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. and then be dismissed to attend the various classes to meet with the students' teachers and be briefed by the teachers on subject matter of the courses, etc. Students will be furnished with their respective schedules Thursday and are asked to take them home to their parents for use at the conference that night. Be sure to ask your student for his or her schedule when he or she arrives home from school that day.

A great deal of time and preparation has gone into this annual conference and it is hoped that all parents of Junior and Senior High students will take time to attend. Thursday, November 14, 7:30 p.m., Hope Senior High auditorium.
